

Rocky Mountain Dance Theatre Dream to Dance Scholarship Fund

Rocky Mountain Dance Theatre offers a scholarship program to increase participation of low-income earners or families who wish to enroll their son or daughter in a formal dance training institution. Although all are welcome to apply, The Dream to Dance Scholarship is designed for low-income park county residents.

This program is designed to cultivate, enhance and further develop the ability of students ages eight through eighteen in the discipline of ballet, contemporary, tap and hip hop dance styles. This will give students the opportunity to learn common dance styles at an intermediate and/or advanced level. All participants will need to meet educational and financial requirements outlined in the remainder of this form in addition to showing dedication for the program and the craft.

Scholarship Includes:

- Tuition waiver to Rocky Mountain School of the Arts ranging from $30-$150 per month (Dependent on circumstance and funds available)
- $100 gift certificate to The Dance Store
- Company Fee Waiver when applicable

Official Rules:

An official application and brief essay describing what dance education means to you must be completed by the applicant. Essays may be sent to the donors who make this fund possible. Scholarship recipients will remain anonymous.

All applications require electric signatures and should be emailed to:

Alicia Singer
aliciasinger19@gmail.com

Qualifications:

- Applicants should be currently enrolled in a primary educational institution, grades 1 through 12, with a B average on the grading system. Proof of maintaining a B average grade level will be required throughout the duration of the program.
- Reference check of good behavior rapport obtained.
- Max. 500 word essay explaining why dance is important to you.
- (1) Letter of recommendation.
- Must have financial need.
